

The Reagan-Udall Foundation (RUF) is seeking nominations for its Steering Committee (SC), which provides strategic oversight and guidance on the operation of IMEDS.

Steering Committee responsibilities include advising on strategic direction, integrating IMEDS within the research community, and providing input on IMEDS program activities.

The 12-member Steering Committee is comprised of two FDA non-voting members and 10 voting members representing health insurers, health systems, patient advocacy groups, regulated industries, academia, and research institutes. Two positions are currently open:

Current Open Positions:

- Biotech/Pharmaceutical Representative: 1 from a small-medium sized company
- Academic: 1

In order to meet the requirement of serving in any of the open seats on the Committee, the member must either be employed by or volunteering for an organization that fits the positions description.

Please complete the following Steering Committee Nomination Form and submit along with an updated Curriculum Vitae to IMEDS@reaganudall.org with “SC Nomination” included in the subject line by April 30, 2021.

Nominee	[Name]
Position / Employer
Is the Nominee employed/volunteering at regulated industry?	(Yes / No)
Email
Experience related to real-world evidence generation
Experience working with/for International-based Institution
Experience serving on governance body
Scientific area of expertise
Other relevant experience that displays nominee’s understanding of the landscape of organizations, activities and methods informing the role of observational data to answer regulatory questions.
Nominated By ¹	Name (Organization of Nominator)

¹ If you are self-nominating, please indicate “self”